Years of Suffering

Cataract and Blood Disease—
Doctors Failed to Cure.
Miss Mahet P. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes: "For three years I was troubled with cataract and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles and three boxes of bottled Schaeffer beer. The result is evident that Mr. Farquill had received large supply to meet the demand of his labor day customers. The beer was shipped from New York to Norwich on steamer Chesapeake and from Norwich to Westerly by trolley freight. Chief Brandfield did not make the raid until the beer was signed for by Farquill and not until he had placed two barrels in his covered wagon for delivery.

The three rooms at police headquarters and some of the cells contain large quantities of beer, whiskey, gin and brandy; the result of recent seizures, held until warrant is issued by the court for their destruction.

BIG LIQUOR SEIZURE IN WESTERLY

Attalino Farquill's Labor Day Supply Taken from Trolley Freight Station—Kegs and Jugs Enough to Crowd Police Headquarters—First Baptist Church to Celebrate Diamond Anniversary—Columbus Day Plans.

Chief of Police Cornelius Brandfield, Sergeant Thomas E. Brown and Police man Edward E. West searched the freight depot of the Norwich and Westerly trolley road, under a warrant, Friday afternoon, and made the largest haul of wet goods ever known to the police of Westerly. It is alleged in the warrant that search was made for intoxicating liquor that was kept for sale and they secured evidence to that effect, as some of the wet goods were in a covered wagon ready for delivery when the officers made the visitation. The driver of the team was Attalino Farquill. All the goods seized bore labels of Schaeffer beer and three barrels of bottled Schaeffer beer.

It required two trips of a double team and two trips of a single team to transport the seized vessels and contents from the freight station to police headquarters, and besides the police officers three other men and the teamsters were required to unload the stuff and slide it carefully down the steep and long stone steps to the police rooms. The seizure consisted of twelve barrels of Ballantine ale, twenty-six kegs of Schaeffer beer and three barrels of bottled Schaeffer beer.

It is evident that Mr. Farquill had received large supply to meet the demand of his labor day customers. The beer was shipped from New York to Norwich on steamer Chesapeake and from Norwich to Westerly by trolley freight. Chief Brandfield did not make the raid until the beer was signed for by Farquill and not until he had placed two barrels in his covered wagon for delivery.

The three rooms at police headquarters and some of the cells contain large quantities of beer, whiskey, gin and brandy; the result of recent seizures, held until warrant is issued by the court for their destruction.

The First Baptist church of Westerly

will celebrate the seventy-fifth anniversary of its organization on Sept. 25, 27 and 28. The historical address will be delivered by Dr. William A. Hillard at the opening session Sunday morning and the Sunday school will have special exercises at the noon hour. In the evening at 7:30 the sermon will be preached by William Herbert Perry, pastor of the First Baptist church of Providence. Tuesday evening will be Field night, with an interesting programme of varied addresses in connection with the observance.

Wednesday evening will be Church Home night and all present and former members who are unable to attend have been requested to send a written message to be read that night.

The Italians of Westerly are planning for observance of Columbus day, Oct. 12, which is a legal holiday in Rhode Island. There will be a meeting Sunday afternoon in Hibernian hall for the appointment of committees to arrange for the observance. The promoters are advocating a street parade in the morning and attendance at divine service, with a picnic in the afternoon and fireworks and a general glorification in the evening.

As there is to be a big demonstration in Providence, in which the Knights of Columbus of the state and many Italian societies will participate, the Westerly observance will be purely local, with the exception perhaps of the presence of an Italian society from New London.

The Western Medical society after a recess of three months has resumed monthly sessions. At the meeting on Thursday evening Dr. J. De Vere Barber read an interesting paper on The Advancement of Medical Education in the United States.

Dr. Barber, who is now in the city after consideration he was in favor of the general rules governing the local organization and that he would probably have made application for membership but for the fact that he contemplated locating in Boston.
